

WHIDBEY ISLAND GENEALOGICAL SEARCHERS

OAK HARBOR, WASHINGTON

Presents Torolf Torgersen

NORDIC ROOTS

Torolf Torgersen is a student of Scandinavian history and culture.

He will discuss early Norse culture and those customs that gave rise to the Viking Age. You will learn features that both distinguished and connected Norse and Viking societies, and how each influenced trade, cultural patterns, defense, and gene pools in the British Isles, northwestern Europe, Russia, and beyond.

Naming patterns will also be described to help in genealogical search for Scandinavian family connections.

All are invited to join us for this free educational program.

Date: Tuesday, April 21, 2020

Time: 1:00 pm

Place: Oak Harbor Lutheran Church

1253 NW 2nd Ave., Oak Harbor, WA 98277

Whidbey Island Genealogical Searchers

Post Office Box 627

Oak Harbor, WA 98277-0627

www.whidbeygensearchers.org

Questions: e-mail whidbeygensearchers@gmail.com (Subject: Programs)